2012 ROD RUN TO THE END OF THE WORLD
VENDOR CONDUCT CODE
September 08 & 09, 2012

The Beach Barons welcome vendors to participate in our Rod Run. In an attempt to have a well-run, fun event for everyone, We have listed some requirements we want you to read and abide by. We are asking your cooperation in following all of these requests. Failure to follow them will result in dismissal from the Rod Run to the End of the World, forfeiture of your fee and no opportunity to participate in our Rod Run to the End of the World again.

1. Please line up your booth with your neighbor and stay within the footage requested. Whatever space (footage) you request is the space that will be reserved for you.
2. Keep your booth area clean and clear of clutter.
3. Food vendors must have clear signs of your products and their prices. All signs must be pointed outward towards the participant cars. No signs will be allowed in the walkway.
4. Vendors may only sell the items that have been approved by the Vendor Coordinator.
5. No loud hawking of items from your booth. Selling outside your individual area will not be allowed, however car related samples (no food) may be offered to participants on the field.
6. No objectionable products will be allowed, i.e., shirts with unacceptable printing, drug paraphernalia, or alcohol and related items, tobacco, etc.
7. Vendor behavior must be acceptable. There will be no alcoholic beverages of any kind allowed on the field at anytime; Use or possession of drugs on the grounds is prohibited; and use of foul language is also prohibited. Argumentative behavior between any vendors, the public or committee member will not be tolerated. Vendors are to behave in a business-like manner, no matter the 'extenuating circumstance or disagreements that may have occurred'.
8. Vendors who are not pleased with their placement in the event may discuss the situation with the Executive Board to see if a compromise can be reached. The final decision, however, is left to the Vendor Coordinator. If the vendor disagrees, the choice will be to accept the placement or not be involved in the Rod Run to the End of the World.
9. All required fees must be paid with the application.
10. Vendors who tear down their booths for any reason before the stated time on their application will not be asked back to any future Rod Run events.
11. Food vendors must meet all health standards and obtain the necessary health permits at least two weeks prior to the Rod Run to the End of the World.
12. Food vendors must obtain and show proof of the required insurance and health permits prior to August 15, 2012.
13. All persons working in a vendor booth at the Rod Run must read and abide by these guidelines.
14. Vendors will advise the Chair Persons of the number of people and cars to be used during the event prior to August 21, 2011. This will allow passes to be issued PRIOR TO THE EVENT. VENDOR STAFF WILL NOT BE ALLOWED ON THE FIELD WITHOUT A PASS: THE VENDOR COMMITTEE RESERVES THE RIGHT TO LIMIT THE NUMBER OF PASSES GIVEN TO VENDORS.
15. THERE WILL BE NO REFUNDS FOR CANCELLATIONS AFTER AUGUST 21, 2012.
